Many people are only concerned with what happens today or perhaps a few months down the road. At best, they may be concerned with what happens after retirement, but what about life after death? Are you prepared for it? Although your physical body will die someday, your spirit more will continue to live for eternity. Whether your spirit resides in heaven or in hell depends on the choices you have made. In this book, bestselling author Joyce Meyer outlines God's plan for salvation so you can make the right decision.

Has life thrown so much at you that you've been tempted to give up? Everyone gets discouraged now and then, but our adversary makes sure of that. According to Joyce Meyer, that's the very point that you need to recognize: who is at the root of that thought and reject it. God did not anoint you, so you would quit no matter what obstacles or temptations have come your way. You must choose to never give in to those pressures or give up in the power of determination. Joyce Meyer encourages people to obey God's voice and do whatever He says, each and every step of the way. Then, absolutely nothing, no person on earth, no devil in hell, no inability you have, nothing from your past will be able to stand in your way. God has promised to always lead us in triumph because you have not failed until you stop trying.

When bestselling author Joyce Meyer posted "God's not mad at you" on Facebook, she didn't anticipate that her words would trigger thousands of responses of gratitude and relief. Apparently, many Christians struggle to reconcile their perception of God as both a loving parent and a stern judge. In God, is not mad at you, Joyce Meyer will help those who haven't truly received God's love because they are afraid of His anger and disapproval. She explores the source of this confusion so His genuine character can be better understood and His love can be experienced on an entirely new level. Chapter titles include perfectionism and approval, the pain of rejection, guilt and shame, developing your potential, run to God, not from Him, getting comfortable with God. It is important for us to remember that God's anger is directed toward our sinful behavior rather than toward us. If you feel guilty right now and are afraid that God is mad at you, then you are miserable, but your misery can be immediately changed to peace and joy by simply believing God's word. Believe that God loves you and that He is ready to show you mercy and forgive you completely. Believe that God has a good plan for your life. Believe that God is not mad at you. Joyce Meyer.
